

BRIDGING THE GAP BETWEEN COPS
AND THE COMMUNITY

Emergency Funds for Families in Need
Comprehensive Policy

Monday, April 21, 2025

To Whom It May Concern,

We are proud to present this comprehensive proposal for the Emergency Funds for Families in Need program—an initiative developed by All Cops Ain't Bad, Inc., a nonpartisan 501(c)(3) nonprofit dedicated to bridging the gap between law enforcement and the communities they serve.

Founded by a 30-year police veteran, All Cops Ain't Bad (ACAB) exists to build trust, restore compassion, and provide tangible support in times of crisis. From community education to national outreach, our mission is rooted in the belief that real change begins when we uplift one another—especially those experiencing moments of unexpected hardship.

The Emergency Funds for Families in Need program embodies that mission by delivering real-time financial relief for families facing emergencies such as medical crises, housing instability, or victimization. With the help of verified law enforcement officers, a secure mobile application, and a network of service partners, this initiative ensures that aid reaches those who need it most—quickly, transparently, and responsibly.

We invite you to explore the details of this proposal and consider the powerful impact your support can make. Together, we can deliver hope when it's needed most and strengthen the ties that keep our communities united.

With gratitude,

Emergency Funds for Families in Need: Comprehensive Policy Proposal

Presented by: All Cops Ain't Bad, Inc.
A Nonpartisan 501(c)(3) Nonprofit Organization

1. Executive Summary

The Emergency Funds for Families in Need program is a national initiative designed to provide immediate financial assistance to individuals and families experiencing crises. This policy proposal outlines the structure, functionality, and operational aspects of the program, along with detailed information about the ACAB Emergency Fund App that will facilitate the submission and management of emergency cases. The app is designed for verified law enforcement officers and ensures that funds are distributed responsibly, offering seamless assistance for essential needs such as food, transportation, temporary housing, and towing services.

This proposal highlights the program's funding sources, security features, and tracking capabilities, as well as the roles of law enforcement officers, dispatchers, and administrators in managing cases. The ACAB Emergency Fund App serves as a tool for case submission, real-time tracking, and ensuring that the program delivers the help needed to those in crisis.

2. Program Overview

The program addresses a wide range of emergencies including:

- Medical emergencies
- Housing instability
- Victims of crime (including domestic violence)

It provides flexible assistance through vouchers and service credits such as Uber Eats for food, Uber credits for transportation, Hotels.com for temporary lodging, and more. Cases are referred by verified law enforcement officers through a secure, encrypted mobile application.

3. Funding Sources

The program is supported through a mix of public and private streams:

- Government Grants
- Private & Corporate Donations
- Foundation Support
- Comedy Show Ticket Sales
- Gala Fundraisers
- Community Events (e.g., pool tournaments)

5. Security Features

- End-to-End Encryption
- Biometric Authentication
- Triple-Layered Accounting System
- Real-Time Alerts for Misuse
- Audit Trail Logging

6. Technical Details

- Cross-platform mobile application
 - Cloud-based architecture for scalability
 - Relational database for referrals and service tracking

7. Financial Sustainability

Each U.S. state will receive $1 million annually, distributed as follows:

- $600,000 for direct assistance
- $400,000 for program administration

Total U.S. Budget:

- $50 million/year across all 50 states
 - $30M for emergency assistance
 - $20M for staffing, tech, and operations

8. Conclusion

The ACAB Emergency Fund App is an innovative and secure tool for delivering aid to those in need, especially in urgent, law enforcement-identified scenarios. With real-time visibility, stringent oversight, and equitable statewide allocation, this program is built for impact, transparency, and sustainability.

It's more than a policy—it's a movement to connect public safety infrastructure with real-time care and crisis response. And now, we invite you to be part of it.

Subject: Seeking Your Support and Recommendations for the Emergency Funds for Families in Need Program
